AAMER ESMAIL

Aamer Esmail is a seasoned equity, diversity and inclusion professional with 20 years of experience in the not-for-profit sector.

Aamer's experience includes working as National Director, Equity, Diversity and Youth Engagement for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Canada as well as the lead EDI Consultant for the United Nations Association in Canada. As a current member of University of Toronto's Anti-Racism and Cultural Diversity Office, Aamer provides consultations on strategic initiatives, supports complaints resolution processes and facilitates education sessions. Aamer has previously led anti-oppressive health promotion and community development programs and services for Access Alliance Multicultural Health and Community Services and Sherbourne Health, with a specific focus on settlement, youth and LGBTQ2S+ programs.

His consulting services include providing coaching and training support to organizations interested to engage Staff and Board in discussing and addressing topics of anti-racism, LGBTQ2S+ inclusivity, equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging.

Contact Aamer for coaching sessions around issues related to:

- Advancing equity, diversity and inclusion within organizations
- Navigating conversations around anti-racism and LGBTQ2S+ inclusivity
- Increasing engagement with diverse communities
